

Weekly overview 19.10.-23.10. 2020

23 October 2020 by LECTURA GmbH

Extraordinary transport and material handling solution for smaller sawmills: SENNEBOGEN 817 with trailer now working in Switzerland

In the idyllic town of Treyvaux near Fribourg in the French-speaking part of Switzerland, a unique material handling solution is now up and running: A SENNEBOGEN 817 E series with 9 m equipment is used in the traditional sawmill Yerly bois SA with a trailer for handling logs. Read more >>

EIMA International: the "green corridors" for foreign businesspeople are coming

The organizational offices of the world exhibition of agricultural machinery launch the procedures required to authorize the arrival of foreign businesspeople to the exhibition. Due to the small number of nations... Read more >>

It is time for #BUILDINGTRUST and ENABLING INNOVATION

"It is time to see opportunities and focus on recovery. It is time to look forward and see where innovation sets the path for growth. It is time to take leadership in sustainable construction technology... Read more >>

Mammoet takes delivery of first ever Liebherr LTM 1650- 8.1 mobile crane

The first ever LTM 1650-8.1 left the Liebherr plant in Ehingen with a black and red livery. It is going to Dutch global crane and heavy haulage contractor, Mammoet. After all the prototype tests were successfully concluded, deliveries of the crane will now start. Read more >>

Why did some contractors suffer from the decrease during the coronavirus crisis, and others experienced the growth of their business?

Surprisingly, some respondents who participated in the COVID survey claimed the coronavirus crisis had no impact on their business. Moreover, a small proportion of them reported an increase due to the crisis. Read more >>

Metso Outotec launches next-generation HRCe high pressure grinding technology for superior grinding and energy efficiency

Metso Outotec is launching the next evolution of the high pressure grinding roll, the HRC™e HPGR. The industry standard was set when the HRC™ HPGR was launched back in 2014 pioneering the use of flanges and non-skewing design. Read more >>

NFT deploys Potain topless cranes for Hong Kong housing project

Tower crane specialist NFT is using five Potain cranes to construct public housing in Hong Kong. The fleet includes two MCT 565 and three MCT 385 tower cranes, all from the advanced range of Potain topless cranes built in Zhangjiagang, China. Read more >>

Asphalt recycling with a zero carbon footprint at Famenne Enrobés

In the beautiful territory of Marche en Famenne in Belgium, the company Famenne Enrobés produces and supplies hydrocarbon coatings for the road sector. With a staff of 15 employees they manage... Read more >>

NEW: Triotrac M self-propelled feed mixer

Meet the Triotrac M, our new self-propelled feed mixer. This 14 m3 self-propelled machine has one vertical auger and a cutting-loading system with loading rotor to load the feed into the mixing tub. Read more >>

Two Low Top cranes build the longest suspension bridge in South America

For the construction of a 3 km long suspension bridge over the Chacao Canal, Hyundai required a tier one partner to provide reliable cranes together with a team with technical expertise. Read more >>

Source: LECTURA Verlag GmbH